DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE TO SEEK DEATH PENALTY FOR CAPITAL MURDER
SUSPECT CHARGED IN THE SHOOTING DEATH OF ROBERT RICHARDSON

Rockford Hills, Los Santos (City Hall): The Department of Justice last Friday revealed a criminal indictment of Jebediah “Jube” Alsbrook, 26, of San Andreas, for the murder of Robert Richardson, a decorated lawman who served with distinction in the San Andreas State Police. Alsbrook was arrested on January 5th by troopers after a vehicle pursuit in Mirror Park. He is charged in a criminal complaint with a single count of Aggravated First Degree Murder and one count of Attempted Aggravated First Degree Murder. Alsbrook was released on $125,000 bail following an arraignment hearing.

Captain Richardson was ambushed last October by Alsbrook and others while performing a traffic stop near Route 68 in Sandy Shores. Deputy Sheriff Raegan Frasier was seriously wounded in the ambush, but survived after receiving expert medical treatment at a nearby hospital. The Department in a recent court filing announced its intention to seek the death penalty against Alsbrook. “Our communities have slowly descended into bedlam at the hands of people like Alsbrook,” said State Attorney Anthony Lankowski. “By seeking the death penalty, we are sending a clear and unambiguous message that we will not tolerate this type of lawlessness. I have full faith in my prosecutors and the court that justice will be done.”

The Department of Justice will make no further extrajudicial comments. A criminal complaint is merely an allegation, and all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. Related court documents may be found under the Judiciary section of the government website.
